

Academy of Neurologic Physical Therapy Conference Media Policy

Attendance

Journalists and members of the media who wish to attend the ANPT Annual Conference and/or International Conference for Vestibular Rehabilitation must register for a press pass in advance. Registration is free of charge and will provide you with access to all general sessions and poster halls. ANPT reserves the right to limit the number of press registrations.

To register, please email amiller@neuropt.org and include:

- Business card clearly showing media affiliation (a print, online, or broadcast news organization) and position (editor, writer, producer, reporter, videographer). If a business card is used to register, an additional form of identification may be requested.
- Letter of assignment on official company letterhead from an editor of a recognized news organization or a producer of a broadcast program certifying that you are covering the conference for the respective news organization.
- At least two published bylined samples of editorial and/ or news work in English.
- Press registration is granted only to working journalists who can show evidence that their attendance will result in coverage of the ANPT Annual Conference and/or International Conference for Vestibular Rehabilitation.

Registration Restrictions:

- Industry sales representatives, public relations firms, financial analytics firms, data analytics firms, and advertising agency representatives may not register as press.
- Writers attending for the sole purpose of packaging content for profit and/or continuing education (CME/CEU) opportunities, research studies, and textbooks will not be registered as press.
- Exhibitors may not register as press.

Activities Not Allowed:

- No photography of sessions without permission from the ANPT Executive Office.
- No video or audio recordings
- No sharing content of the sessions while they are taking place
