Stroke Corner Videos: Clinical Pearl Examples for Increasing Aerobic Intensity

This week, we are re-visiting videos created by the Stroke SIG to help clinicians increase the intensity of their treatment sessions for patients with stroke.

Video 1: Dr. Jamie Haines, previous SIG Vice chair, provides patient video examples of intensive exercises for patients with varying levels of functional impairment.

Video 2: Dr. Marisa Moran provides an example of providing high-intensity treadmill training for a 41 year-old patient after CVA. Dr. Moran discusses her evaluation and progression of high-intensity training for this patient who is on beta blockers.
